Shalom

Ancient Hebrew benediction
English text by Wayne Hooper, 1974 (1920-)

Irregular
Accomp. by Melvin West, 1984 (1930-)

1.* Sha - lom, my friends, sha - lom, my friends, Sha - lom, sha - lom.
2. May bless - ings at-tend you, an - gels de-fend, Sha - lom, sha - lom.
3. Till we meet a-gain, till we meet a-gain, Sha - lom, sha - lom.

May peace be with you, God's peace be with you. Sha - lom, sha - lom.
God's mer - cies be-friend you un - to the end. Sha - lom, sha - lom.
May God be with you, His peace be with you. Sha - lom, sha - lom.

Accompaniment may repeat these two measures for the duration of the canon.

Words copyright © 1974 by Wayne Hooper.
Arrangement copyright © 1984 by Melvin West.

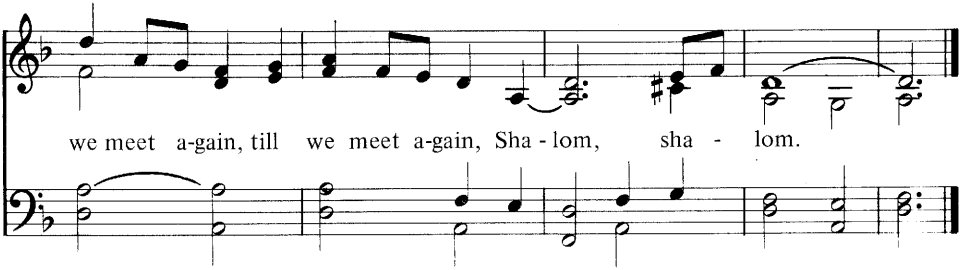

Alternate Version

Ancient Hebrew benediction

Irregular

Sha - lom, good friends, sha - lom, good friends, Sha - lom, sha - lom. Till we meet a-gain, till we meet a-gain, Sha - lom, sha - lom.

From Chansons de Notre Chalet, copyright 1957 by Cooperative Recreation Service, Inc., Delaware, Ohio.

*The word "Shalom" has a triple meaning: hello, farewell, and peace - with special overtones of loving concern and sincere caring for each other.
At the beginning of a meeting or as an expression of fellowship during a meeting, change text to "As we meet again."